

I travel on the road a lot in my work & I am always using the traffic station to avoid the congestion that I could only get any minute of the day off a dedicated traffic station on xm. I I also own a motorcycle & use the weather station to provide me with the safest route of travel. I know that the xm weather station has saved lives not only in riding but also car travel when avoiding severe weather areas.